Topic- 0019: "Script Development Stages"

- All great stories end with great ending.
- First ten minutes are critical in Bollywood films.
- Carry with a multi-track in your episodes. For example in 20 episodes drama make 19 episodes in a way that has different events that tracks the audiences to the ending i.e. 20th episode.
- Create interest or conflict in the character.
- There should be a major conflict along with situational conflicts.
- At the end the conflict ends with a solution and that's the end of your drama etc
