

Questionnaire:

Age:

Occupation:

Marital Status:

Living Area:

Education:

| Questions: | Yes | No |
|--|------------|-----------|
| I feel that my positive feelings have a good impact on my self-concept. | | |
| I feel pleasant while meeting with others at the first time. | | |
| I get frightened to meet with others due to my own apprehension that others will perceive me negatively. | | |
| I perceive the world in a negative way due to my own negative thoughts. | | |
| I usually prefer the individual's physical appearance in forming the first impression about him/her. | | |
| I usually prefer the individual's occupation in developing the first impression about him/her. | | |
| I usually prefer the individual's non-verbal clues in forming the first impression about him/her. | | |
| I usually prefer the individual's intelligence in developing the first impression about him/her. | | |
| I think that ones' academic background have an influence on forming the perceptions about the others. | | |
| I think that financial independence may play an effective role in building pleasant impression about the others. | | |